Norah Oakley Trophy – Memorial

I didn't have the privilege of knowing Norah during her lifetime, recalled past MBO Executive Director, Walter Heeney, so he spent a few moments recently in conversation with her close life-long friend Doris Luke. "She was a tremendous competitor" recalls Doris, "and whereas most people wait for things to happen, Norah went after her goals and persisted until she got them." As with a lot of bowlers, Norah excelled at many sports and it was basketball that first brought Norah and Doris together in 1939. Norah's maiden name was Beveridge and she married Don Culverson, who unfortunately got filled in World War II. Subsequently, she married Wilf Oakley. Championships became a way of life for Norah. She was a member in numerous Ontario and Canadian Ladies Championship teams. Says Doris, "Norah won many local events and used to count of the 'Queen for a Day' tourney at Knob Hill for spending money." In the Masters, Norah won the singles competition at the Master Bantam event in 1966 and in 1968-69, won the aggregate title and traveled to Vancouver with Joe Chiki for the Canadian Championships. Both Norah and Joe were victorious. In recognition of her accomplishments, Norah was ranked 16th overall in the history of 5 pin bowling. The Master Bowlers' Association have decided to remember Norah with a memorial trophy and have agreed, each year, to recognize the Ladies' Teaching Division Aggregate Champion.

Orv Bauman Trophy - Memorial

On Wednesday, February 5th, 1975 a tragic truck accident took Orv's life. His generosity, enthusiasm and love for life have been an inspiration to us all. Orv started bowling relatively late in life and once he saw the potential bowling offered for enjoyment he took full advantage. In 1964, he founded the Kitchener-Waterloo Association and was the first President. He spent endless hours building the association and fulfilled numerous functions, including lane certification, memberships, etc. and all at his own expense. In 1964, he was the driving force in staging the 5 pin bowling championships we are playing today, and followed it up by installing four lanes in the annex of the Kitchener Auditorium to host the Canadian Champions in fine style. Just imagine the amount of work involved in that project. As we know, Orv was an excellent bowler and a real student of the game. In 1961, he bowled a perfect game at Sportsman's Bowlerama in Guelph. In his travels, which were extensive, Orv would look for a local bowling centre and play the game housed there, whether 5 pin, 10 pin, duck pin or candlepin. A self made man, Orv loved bowling and will be missed not only in Kitchener, but across Canada. With the approval of Orv's wife, Adele, the Masters have inaugurated the Orv Bauman Memorial Trophy to be presented to the aggregate winner of the Men's Teaching Division. Orv worked with senior citizens and blind bowlers as an instructor and coach, and it is only fitting that this trophy assumes a place in our organization.
